Museum To Show Press

Officials of the Lake County Historical Museum recently conferred with business representatives of the Antioch News in preparation for accepting the News' over 70-year-old Cottrell press for future exhibition.

The Cottrell, which was just recently turned out to pasture after decades of excellent printing service, is being replaced within this week by a Cox-o-type press which is expected to fill the present day needs of the Antioch News.

Mr. Robert Vogel of the Lake County Historical Museum stated that the Cottrell press would be retained in a storage area until exhibiting facilities can be made available. The museum at the present time is cramped for both exhibit and storage space. The institute's future plans encompass large areas of expansion and development. Since it is a non-profit organization, the Museum must rely upon the generous aid of other outside interests.

On a hopeful speculation, Vogel said that the organization intended to have the Cottrell press exhibited in their "Old Town" exhibit, which is now in the planning stages before construction.

The "Old Town" exhibit will be built within the confines of the museum proper and one of its main attractions will be a recreation on the premises of an old-time newspaper office and print shop.

Local GOP Holds Dinner

The Antioch Township Republican Club will hold its Annual Dinner and Officers Installation meeting at Lorenz's Smart Country House this coming Saturday, March 10, at 8 p.m.

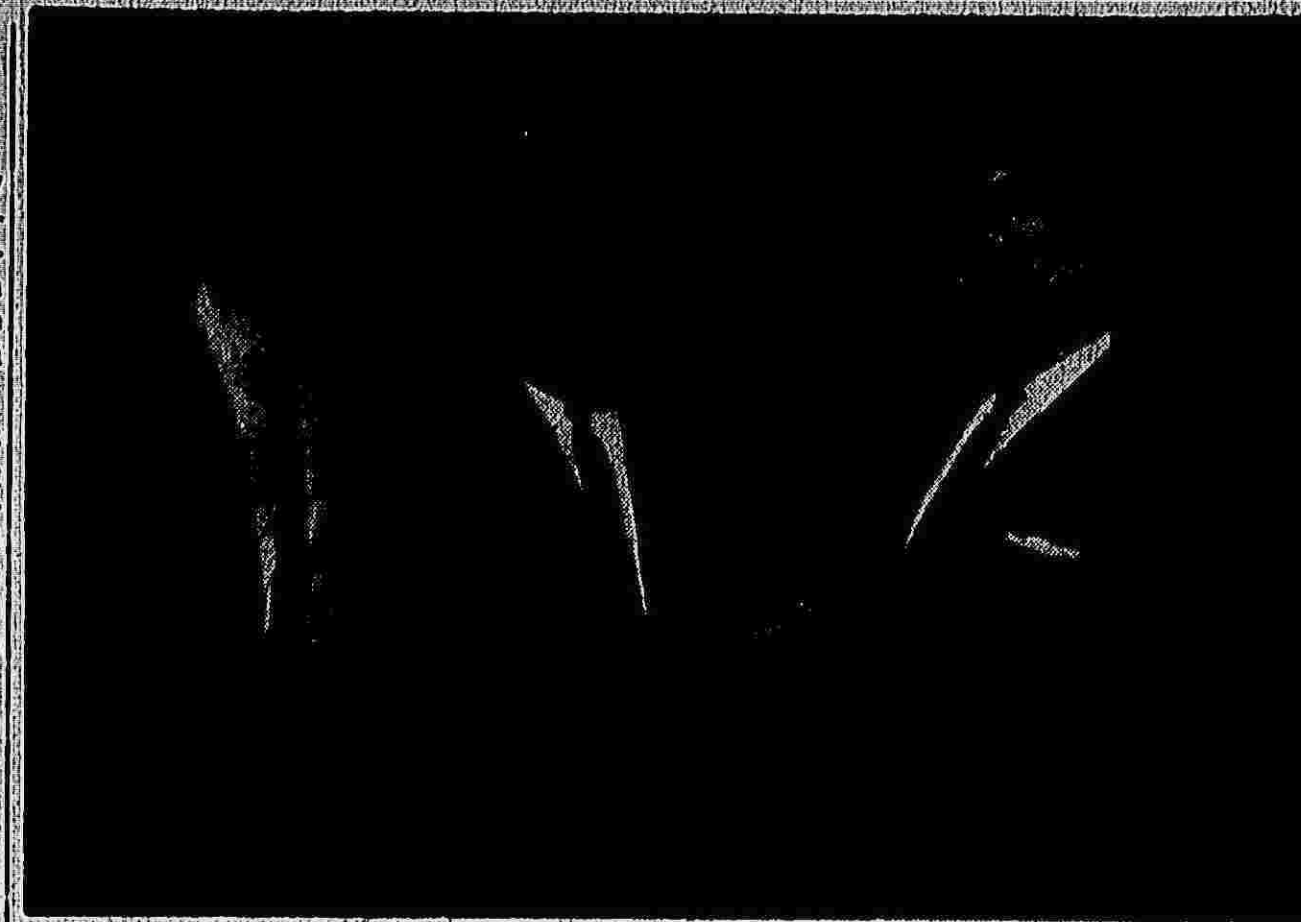

Many of the candidates for state and county offices are expected to be in attendance.

The featured speaker of the evening will be Mr. R. D. Stuart, vice-president of the Quaker Oats Company. Stuart is a member of the executive committee and board of directors for the company. He is the son of R. D. Stuart, Sr., who served as ambassador to Canada under the Eisenhower administration.

The new officers to be installed at the meeting are as follows: Herbert Horton, chairman; Walter Delaney, Sr., 1st vice chairman; Gilbert Meisger, 2nd vice chairman; Harry Weland, secretary; Elmer Eberman, treasurer; and Frank Weis, sergeant-at-arms.

Anyone desiring tickets to the affair are asked to contact L. E. Murrie or any club member.

About 150 to 200 guests are expected to attend the dinner.

Representatives of the Lake County Historical Museum, James Bado (left), Publicity Chairman and William Palmer, (right), President of the Museum's Board, confer with the Business Manager of the Antioch News, Howard Shepard (center) as to the preparations of installing the old Cottrell Press into a museum exhibit. Marius "Bossy" Olsen, mayor of Fox Lake and chairman of the affair, presented William Murphy and Ralph W. ### Driver Hits Rear of Auto

Two cars were damaged in an accident which occurred on Rte. 45 last Saturday, March 3.

Mrs. Lydia Hatch, 55, of Mundelein was slowing down for traffic in front of her while proceeding on Rte. 45, a half-mile north of Rte. 173, when George Janicki, 31, of Antioch, ran into the rear end of her car.

Although the front and rear portions of both cars were damaged, they were able to be driven away.

No Stamps for Jewel Tea Co.

G. L. Clements, President, and F. J. Lundling, Chairman, Jewel Tea Co., Inc., today announced that "Jewel Food Stores will not jump on the stamp gimmick bandwagon to woo customers to its stores." Clements said, "We can't do this and at the same time protect the customers' freedom of choice and her pocketbook."

"The stamp grocer" must pay his stamp company 2% of every sale he makes. Jewel's long experience in the food business tells it that such a substantial increase in the cost of doing business must eventually be passed on to customers in one form or another. It just has to show up, a penny here, a penny there, on poorer services or lower quality."

Clements and Lundling pointed out that "during the last five years, with trading stamps available in the Chicago area, Jewel stores have served an ever increasing number of customers."

2 Cars Hit Each Other

Two persons were involved in an accident last Sunday, March 4, on Grass Lake Road due to the excessive amounts of snow on the pavement.

Robert D. Phillips, 37, of Antioch was going south on Rte. 59 when he struck Laddie J. Seske, 70, of Antioch, who had been proceeding north.

The Sheriff's Office reported that there was too much snow accumulated in drifts on Seske's lane for him to allow the passage of Phillips at that point.

No tickets were issued to either party.

Left front damage was done to both cars.

Phelan, who was proceeding north on Deep Lake Road, noticed the Lessig car coming around a curve in the road.

The girl had lost control of her car and was sliding sideways down the road. She struck Phelan as he approached.

Taft Jr., president pro tem of the Ohio House of Representatives.

THE CLOAKED EXCHANGE

The recent political exchange of arch spie Rudolph Abel and Gary Powers seems to be symptomatic of the American-Russo softening towards arbitrary agreement. This move, with its few pertaining aspects revealed, would seem to be mainly perpetrated by the Red bosses, who have so successfully operated under similar masked acts.

Russia's intention is, of course, to parade an apparently well-meaning policy while jockeying for a vantage point from which to dictate the results of an eventual Summit conference.

The only significance attached to this political exchange is that the parties concerned are highly publicized individuals who act as propaganda fronts for both countries. It seems to us that the countless thousands of unknown prisoners held in captivity behind the Iron Curtain warrant as much or more attention than these two.

This act, which officials on both sides claim to be so exceptionally significant, is nothing more than a repetition of feudal tactics which serve to confuse and distort a basis for mutual understanding and agreement.

What is actually needed on our part is the official realization that no compromise between the two existing ideologies can be made.

The Russian political set-up is not geared for arbitration of any kind. Its system, shaped similar to that of a pyramid crowned with a dictator such as Khrushchev, reaches out against its own extremities as well as attempting to suppress foreign systems. A good example of this is the disappearance of one V. M. Molotov who followed a long line of once powerful Party figures into secret purges, undisclosed exiles, and solitary deaths.

How can a government continually busy with purging its own ranks hope to present a unified government with which the United States can negotiate? It is our opinion that it cannot.

This does not mean, however, that we are advocating open warfare, but rather an intensified awareness of a system that threatens to destroy our very existence.

Powers, who has been automatically equated with the notorious and proven spy, Abel, through the exchange, seems to have been maligned by the situation. The Russian government never at any time submitted evidence in proof of Powers' guilt as a spy. On the other hand on the evidence of testimony and findings, Abel was proven to be a Russian mastermind spy in the U. S.

It is unfortunate that pilot Powers must retain for the rest of his life the stigma placed upon him by a government overly desperate to appease.

The American Experience

By Ray Puechner

Exactly how does a town spring up, come into existence? Jogging back to around 1818 let's take a look at the words of Morris Birkbeck, who described the process as he saw it at that time in his "Notes on a Journey in America."

We start out with a scant number of settlers who are attracted to some particular region by reason of its natural beauty, the richness of its soil, or almost any other cause. Immediately some enterprising soul takes it into his hands to deem the place as a good site for the town. He has the land surveyed and laid out in lots which he then offers for sale.

In most cases, the new town assumes the name of its founder. The pattern of development proceeds. "A storekeeper builds a little framed store and sends for a few cases of goods; and then a tavern starts up." Soon a doctor and lawyer are in residence in the tavern-hotel or perhaps the combination boarding house-store. Shortly a blacksmith opens a shop. A schoolmaster—usually a minister of religion—comes to the rapidly growing community.

So the town proceeds. Perhaps it becomes the central metropolis of the area; perhaps trade does not prosper and it fails. At the time in question hundreds of such speculations failed while just as often hundreds prospered and succeeded. The contemporary observer, Mr. Birkbeck, described in his account the town of Princeton, Illinois. He says that in only one year's time the typical dress of the inhabitants changed from buckskin to the point where "now the men appear at church in good blue cloth and the women in fine calicos and straw bonnets."

Small as the cluster of inhabitants may be in the new town, they act as a stimulus on the neighboring area. "Redundancy of supply is the consequence and this demands a vent." A water mill rises on the nearest navigable stream. Think how many small towns and even very large cities have almost all begun about a river, lake, or other navigable body of water which allowed for both travel and trade.

Chances were then that the town—the frontier town—had rough going to survive unless favorable environmental conditions existed. Certainly the recorded impressions of Birkbeck are not the last word on the growth of cities, certainly he was no Lewis Mumford, but he does at least offer a good insight into the process of the growth of towns.

You are a true Antiochite, and a generation older, (which may come as somewhat of a shock to you) if you remember: The Rottenour Bros. and their performances every Thursday night at the Crystal Theater (later renamed the Lakes). Their name bespoke their talents! And the candy they sold between acts, with a prize in every package, including a solid gold watch! (It was always a stranger who got the watch.)

Those luscious chocolate fudge "Lucky Mondags" they served up in the balcony at King's. When they were located on the west side of Main Street, and the gang always met there for any big decisions. While juke box songs "Martina" and "Music Maestro, Please" kept toes tapping.

When the A&P was where Marianne's is now, and the clerks waited on the customers, instead of the self-service lines we wait in now.

A fellow by the name of "Bill" Murphy flipped a mean hamburger, and tossed a wild milkshake in a place called the "Midget Eat Shop" on North-west Main Street.

Roller skating in a tent on a summer's nite, up on Naber's Corners when it was still a corn field.

The big name on any wrestling card was Antioch's own Jim McMillen, and the kids in town hung on the back fence to see him work out.

A toboggan slide was built on Antioch Lake, by the Antioch Recreation Dept. (Did you remember we had one?)

In Ted's Sweet Shop the air was always filled with the odor of sweet chocolate cooking at just the right temperature for dipping. (If you asked he'd always give you a demonstration and a sample.)

The Post Office always sounded like a chicken hatchery about this time of year, when all the mail order chicks came in!

And friend you're one of us if you remember the deep, resonant voice of Pierre Andre!

Now that we've reminisced a little and feel older, but wiser (I think) let's get back to today and a couple of outstanding women this week.

Congrats to Myrtle Sampayo for the 279 game she rolled on Feb. 27th. Do you realize that's only one spare away from 300? A gal with real guts up and go is Bev Roberts. Momentarily expecting her fourth, she was seen last week circulating her petition for re-election to the Channel Lake School Board.

The hush-hush is on about the sale of a certain Main St. Land mark business to a local auto dealer for expansion.

Simple Simon what a card. To think your name would not be hard.

Confused and leery of what you pen, I came up with Edgar Simonson.

Thanks to you who sent the poem. I agree!

Letters to The Editor

March 3, 1962

Antioch News:

I have just purchased a few books and made up a box for the rummage sale, given by the women of Lake Villa, Fox Lake, Fox Lake Hills and towns around these three. A gentleman from that area donated the site and another drew up the plans as a gift to the committee.

What's wrong with Antioch, don't they want a hospital? Or would they prefer travelling 20 miles to Waukegan? The last accident in this area and injured was taken 20 miles to Waukegan was dead on arrival. I like Antioch but think most of the people are thinking of themselves and in slang, "still cooking with gas."

Let us help a wonderful cause by collecting some money here by having raffles and rummage sales and luncheons, where a small charge is made above cost.

If some one just starts I am sure Antioch will do its share, or am I wrong?

Courthouse Notebook -

BY LOU GURNIN

"Tropic of Cancer" and "Lady Chatterley's Lover." Now there's a double feature that should gladden the hearts of some theater operators and if you throw in some short features by Stag Films, Inc., you should be sure of having a full house every night.

So far the temptation to film these two artistic and literary classics has been resisted, but unquestionably there are film studios in Hollywood's back streets working on shooting scripts for these famous novels.

What would be the reaction of the theater operators if they should be produced? Would they be satisfied to slap an "Adults Only" label on the advertising, thereby insuring a good turnout of teenagers, or would they call the pictures "real life" art, and "mature presentation of life as it really is?"

Censorship is an ugly word but should the guarantees of Freedom of Speech and Freedom of the Press be extended to cover the presentation of motion pictures which wallow in filth and base their appeal on the basest instincts of man?

The County Board has recently undertaken a study of the possibility of creating a movie censorship board, because the movie industry refuses to recognize that it has a responsibility.

The proposal was greeted by cries of anguish from local theater operators and from editorial writers who claimed to see an abridgement of freedom in the creation of a movie censor board.

We oppose censorship, but we also feel that government has a responsibility to protect the moral welfare of the community and if the movie industry insists on producing pictures stressing moral degradation, then some action should be taken to limit their showing.

Protecting young people from some of the trashy movies that have been offered as entertainment seems as reasonable as imposing a curfew on them or saying that they can't imbibe.

The Student Council has announced that a total of 15 members of the Student Talent Show have been submitted. The program from accordion selections to comedy skits. Each class is required to enter a skit. Screening of the acts will be done by the Fine Arts Department as soon as "Brigadoon" is completed. The show is scheduled for sometime in April.

Solveig Nelson and John Hall were elected by the Junior Class to represent their school at Girls' and Boys' State this year. This event is sponsored by the American Legion. The purpose of Girls' and Boys' State is to develop better citizens for America. The young people assume their own government positions fashioned after the Illinois government system.

Antioch now has a new International Honor Society occupying its building. It is the Quill and Scroll Honor Society. This organization is for high school journalists who meet the basic requirements set up by the Society. They are as follows:

1. Classified as Juniors or Seniors. 2. Upper third of their Class. 3. Superior work in some phase of journalism. 4. Recommended by their supervisor. 5. Approved by the Executive Secretary of the Society.

On Saturday, March 10, at 9 a.m., the 1962 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test and the National Educational Development Test will be administered in the auditorium. All students who are taking the test are requested to be in the auditorium by 8:45 a.m.

Don't forget to come and see the Fine Arts Department's presentation of "Brigadoon." Two performances will be given; one on Friday and the other on Saturday night. Both performances begin at 8:00 p.m.

Many long faces were seen on the students Wednesday. The reason—you guessed it—report cards. Of course, there are some smiles seen, also.

Although the weather man is not cooperating, Spring is but 18 days away. That wonderful Spring Vacation is only six weeks away. Rumor has it that several students are taking off to sunny Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Myrtle Beach, S. C. has a much better beach and is less crowded. Just a word to the wise, based on personal experience.

I shall close with this note from my grandmother: "Black leotards are sophisticated only if you never wore long underwear."

In alcoholic beverages before they are adults.

Several months ago it was suggested in this corner that the newspapers and radio stations, which are so concerned with the freedom of the press and freedom of speech, might exercise their freedom to reject advertising for movies that stress violence, perversion, moral depravity, and sex for sex sake, but the editorial handwriting still doesn't extend to the cash drawer.

There is still magic in the Taft name judging from the turnout at the Max Wildman dinner which featured Robert Taft, Jr., at the Waukegan Inn last week.

The Ohio political leader drew a crowd for the Congressional candidate, but as William Carroll, Jr., of Woodstock, another aspirant for the Congressional nod, said, "Taft can speak here, but he can't vote here."

Wideman's top level campaigning is creating interest in his candidacy, but it is questionable if his message can reach the voters without being well-diluted by the time it passes down from the king-makers.

Recently we chided political organizations and clubs which schedule rallies for candidates and then do nothing to get a good crowd to hear the office-seekers, but now come two groups to show what can be done with a little effort.

Jim Hopkins, committeeman in Waukegan Township Precinct 7, drew more than 70 interested residents of his precinct out to hear a group of candidates and down in Deerfield on Sunday afternoon an estimated 200 folks television and Sunday sestas to hear the GOP candidates.

It's too much to hope for, of course, but it seems to us that a week's moratorium on campaigning would do all the candidates a lot of good.

It would give them a chance to re-charge their batteries, develop some new campaign material, and give the voters a brief respite from reading and hearing about politics.

So far we have heard of none of the candidates throwing in the towel because Waukegan's Robert Sabonjian, an Independent Democrat-Republican, has endorsed Ralph Swank for State Representative and Adeline J. Geo-Karis Lambros for Congress.

We have heard of no Democrats who are seeking Mayor Sabonjian's blessing in the current primary race.

In two more weeks it will be, by the official calendar, Spring. The ever-awaited for day, March 21, has been heralded down through the centuries by everyone from poets to butchers.

"April is the cruellest month breeding lilacs out of the dead land," T. S. Elliot stated in a poem entitled "The Waste Land." He was not one who enjoyed the transformation of nature to the changing climate but rather as a bit of tragedy as the season of winter melted away into the past.

On the other hand we have the obscure but romantic poet, Bolto Halvey, who rambled excitedly, "Ah, Spring! I bid thee welcome once again!" Halvey, a sensitive poet of almost exquisite feelings, reached out to Spring with a warm hand, almost like renewing an old friendship.

Spring calls eternally to the novelist. Even gruff Ernest Hemingway entitled his second book "The Torrents of Spring." James Michener's "The Fires of Spring" likens the season to the birth of a young boy into manhood.

Most rampant on the subject of Spring are the songwriters, the tune-makers who thrive, naturally enough, off of the common emotion felt toward the on-rushing season.

Gershwin, Cole Porter, Jerome Kern, all composed various songs dedicated to the season. Classical selections also give forth a bounty of works devoted to the "time of new life." "Le Sacre du Printemps" (The Rite of Spring) composed by Stravinsky, is probably the most popular of these works.

Outside of the imaginative, the fictionalized and romantic aspects of Spring, one can stand in constant wonder of the natural change of the earth and the creatures upon it when the thaws melt the earth, robins dot the sky again and yawning trees bud forth.

In this undetermined and wishy-washy month of March, the weather is undecided, bidding a reluctant farewell to the bitter frosts and snows of winter while at the same time greeting the south winds, the new growth within the earth that typifies springtime.

People themselves, it seems, undergo a change also. With the increase of fair weather,

I am deeply disturbed that since 1955 the State of Illinois has lost manufacturing jobs. I need not elaborate on what this means to our economy, to our business, our farms, our commerce and our workers. One of its most horrible aspects is the continued demand on the assistance rolls and the unemployment compensation program, costing sums that Illinois can ill afford. One of our most urgent needs is to reverse this trend.

Studies indicate that a major way of providing new jobs is through expansion of foreign trade. Illinois now is a leading state in exports and if our activity in this field can be enlarged and increased, it would go a long way toward providing the jobs and dollars that our economy needs if it is to function at a prosperous level.

Because our economic future depends on our abilities to their activities enlarge and their moods change to lighter veins. Like that biological system fostered by myriad animals, people seem to shed the dismal winter skin of discontent and drollery for that of buoyant personalities that speak out with "a very good morning to you."

Even though, with high hopes we look toward the Great Thaw, a good way to while away the remaining winter nights is to visit Antioch's Public Library, which is well-equipped with a wide variety of interesting books. There is no reason why some residents of Antioch could not spend a few enjoyable moments with an Irving Stone novel or an Emil Ludwig biography.

Note to Modern Jazz enthusiasts: Theonolus Monk, Miles Davis and Franz Schubert records are a bit passe at this time. The up and coming talents of the Vivaldi Jazz Combo, utilizing the popular but serene ballads of Schoenberg, are the growing fads.

An apparently helpful hint for loud politicians about this time of year might be, "If you wish people to think well of you, don't speak."

Mr. and Mrs. David Pearson Etter, the well-known dual-poots in Chicago soon expect to be parents. They plan on naming their child, boy or girl, Vachel Lindsay, after the Italian architect who designed the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

create more jobs. I am giving my unequivocal support to President Kennedy's trade expansion program. To give emphasis to the importance of this program in Illinois, I have created a Committee on Trade Expansion. Clarence Randall, of Inland Steel Co., has agreed to serve as Honorary chairman of the committee. William Blackie, president of Caterpillar Tractor Co., has agreed to serve as chairman.

What can such a committee do? It will be broadly representative of the best interests of the state—agriculture, labor, industry and trade. It can coordinate the activities of the Illinois Agricultural Association, the Illinois Manufacturers Association, the unions, the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce and other interested groups.

Its job will be one of education—spreading the word about the opportunities and the ways and means of expanding trade. It can help mobilize the resources of the press, radio and television, the universities and service clubs, as well as any group dedicated to the best interests of the state and community. It can explore and obtain the hard facts concerning this program and make sure that all citizens know personally its great meaning.

Of prime importance, it can tell the successful experience of those who are doing business abroad, to those who could be, but are not.

As the greatest export state in the nation, it seems appropriate that Illinois should take the lead in a cause that is not only in its own best interests, but that of our country and the free world.

The nation's dairy price support program is likely to be overhauled. A University of Illinois farm outlook specialist says the present program is proving to be too expensive. Costs exceed one million dollars a day—and could become greater.

Mercury Space Capsules Tour Nation for Bonds

Three Project Mercury spacecraft—replicas of the famous "Freedom 7," "Liberty Bell 7," and "Friendship 7," which carried America's first astronauts into space—will tour the country for U.S. Savings Bonds during the Treasury's Freedom Bond Drive in May and June. The public will be invited to examine at close range the entire spacecraft, including the interior of the capsule.

The tour, which is made possible by the cooperation of McDonnell Aircraft Corporation of St. Louis and the Chevrolet Motor Division of General Motors Corporation, Detroit—two of the nation's best promoters of the Treasury's Payroll Savings Plan—was announced by William H. Neal, National Director, U.S. Savings Bonds Division.

The McDonnell Corporation, which designed and built the Mercury capsules for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, is now making the three full-size replicas for the Freedom Bond Drive. The spacecraft will be lent to the Treasury Department for the bond drive period, and returned to the company after touring the nation.

Chevrolet will provide as a public service three trucks and trailers on which the spacecraft will be mounted, as well as drivers, display signs and public address systems.

The mounted space capsules will tour 150 major cities during the drive and serve as a nucleus around which community Freedom Bond promotions will take place. In addition to these cities where the capsules will have formal showings they will pass through hundreds of other cities and towns enroute—so that millions of citizens will be enabled to see them.

"It is appropriate that these spacecraft be exhibited in connection with the Freedom Savings Bonds Drive," Mr. Neal stated. "Our explorations in space over the years will require substantial sums of money. The extent and success of this program ultimately rests upon a strong and growing economy. The continued sale of Savings Bonds—and extra sales during this Drive—is an essential ingredient of a healthy economy. Millions of Americans will be able to see and examine spacecraft similar to the ones that were manned by Alan Shepard, Gus Grissom and John Glenn in their pioneer flights—and which will be used by the other astronauts in future trials. At the same time, they will be receiving a timely reminder that, as our Drive slogan puts it, they can help keep freedom in their future through the regular purchase of Savings Bonds."

Channel Lake News

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club, at its meeting on February 23 at the Channel Lake school, had as guest speakers Edward Cooney, supervisor of the Department of Conservation Education, and "Frosty" Loomis, Game Biologist. Mr. Cooney spoke on conservation education in the schools. Club members voted to support his work.

Mr. Cooney will speak on this same subject at a meeting of the Grass Lake PTA at the Grass Lake School on March 19. Mr. Cooney's department is a branch of the Department of Education, and has no connection with the Illinois Department of Conservation. He is in charge of conservation education in 84 northern counties in Illinois, and is seeking to promote the teaching of conservation to pupils in the schools. Specifically, he is trying to arouse interest in the establishment of "outdoor laboratories" on school grounds, where space permits. Youngsters could "learn by doing," taking soil tests, planting trees or shrubs, etc. Mr. Cooney cited the Bloom school in Rockford as an example, where the program is already under way.

Anyone who has traveled through our neighboring states, such as Wisconsin and Minnesota, can not fail to note the sad lag of our state in this respect. These states have had conservation programs in their schools for many years. Roadside plantings of evergreens beautify the landscape. In some places, the planting of whole tracts of trees by school children preserve and restore some of the natural resource man seeks to destroy. A child working in the dirt with his companions to plant a seedling, watching it grow to maturity, can not fail to gain something from it—a respect for nature, a respect for public property, pride in his community. Perhaps the growth of such a back-to-earth program in our schools would do more to combat juvenile delinquency than the teaching of social adjustment and grace.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn B. Albert

A Double-Ring Ceremony for Arlene Cribb & F. B. Albert

Wedding vows of Miss Arlene Cribb and Franklyn B. Albert were exchanged in an afternoon ceremony on Saturday, Jan. 27, at St. Peter's Catholic Church. The Rev. L. F. Hanley performed the double-ring service.

Miss Cribb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlo Cribb of Rinear Road, Antioch. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Albert of Lake Villa.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of silk organza, over satin-faced peau de soie, fashioned with a high neckline which was trimmed with lace applique and accented with seed pearls. The pleated full skirt had lace appliques at the front, near the waist.

Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion was held by a crown, trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Irene Cribb, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore an emerald green taffeta gown, fashioned with a scoop neckline, a fitted bodice, cap sleeves and a full skirt. A short circular veil was attached to a matching taffeta headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with pink roses.

Greek letter organizations on campus, as well as individual students and faculty members, offered their services to the highest bidders at auctions, girls shone boys' shoes for a price, students paid for the privilege of demolishing an old auto bearing caricatures of faculty members, etc.

The annual "Ugly Man" contest featured an "ugly" candidate from each class and the students voted for their choice by making cash donations in their name to the drive.

Tips on How to Plant The Fruits of Spring

By Lee Smith
Kenosha Co. Horticultural Agt.

This is the time of year when nursery catalogs appear in the mail. They make interesting reading and do provide some information to help you in planting your home garden for next summer. A word of warning—don't get carried away by beautiful pictures and glowing accounts of productivity. This is very important when considering the planning of a fruit garden. The types of fruit you select must first get thorough investigation. The average home gardener should first consider small fruits such as:

strawberries, raspberries, grapes and currants. If space, time and spraying equipment are available, some may wish to consider tree fruits, and then only the small growing types or dwarf tree types.

Strawberry varieties such as Earldawn, Catskill, and Sparkle have proven themselves. Latham, September and June raspberry varieties will thrive in most of Wisconsin. The purple varieties such as Sodus and Marion are suggested for our area. The Worden, Moore Early and Van Buren grape varieties can be grown in the southern area. The Concord variety can be planted in the Kenosha area, but they may not reach maturity in northern areas.

Apples, pears, plums and red cherries are the standard tree fruits. McIntosh, Cortland, and Delicious are the standard for apples. Clapps' Favorite, Parke, Lincoln and Bartlett pears are common here. If you are interested in plums, the blue type are the best bet. Try the Stanley, Italian prune or Wisconsin prune. The Mount Royal, an excellent plum, will do quite well. Apricots will survive in southern Wisconsin, but frequently the fruit crop is lost because of spring frosts.

The Montmorency cherry variety is the standard for commercial growers, but home gardeners should consider the Meteor variety, or if a true dwarf is desired, try the North Star.

Some fruits should not be planted and if they are, only in sheltered locations. These will include most sweet cherry varieties, highbush blueberries, peaches, and nectarines.

Savings of $5 a week in a 3% bank savings account with interest compounded will amount to $7,117 in twenty years. Interest earnings alone on the $5 deposits will be $1,907 or 38.9% of the total, according to the American Bankers Association.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

TEETHING DISCOMFORT

By Dr. Seuren Avalian
American Academy of Pediatrics

New mothers in asking questions about baby's teeth often express concern about teething discomfort. They have heard that babies become irritable and lose appetite because of painful swollen gums and they want to know what they could do. Here are some of their questions:

Q. When will baby cut his first tooth? Is drooling a sign?
A. At four to eight months. Drooling is not a sign of teething.

Q. How long will it take baby to cut all his teeth?
A. Now teeth appear at intervals until about the age of two when all 20 "baby teeth" should be through. The two lower central incisors usually are the first teeth to appear at four to eight months. The four upper incisors will appear at seven to ten months.

Q. Will teething make my baby ill and cause fever?
A. No, but it may make baby cranky and fretful and interfere with sleep and perhaps even appetite. Illness during teething is due to other reasons. Fever during teething usually is due to lack of fluids as a cranky and fussing baby doesn't drink enough liquids.

Q. Will teething cause diarrhea?
A. No. If it occurs, it's a coincidence.

Q. What about latching the gums if the teeth are slow to come through?
A. Only if your doctor decides it's absolutely necessary. Baby's teeth should and they can come through by themselves.

Q. What else should I do if baby is irritable?
A. Make sure he drinks enough fluids including milk, water and juices. If his appetite is off, offer foods baby likes. Give him a dried crust of bread to chew on, changing it when it becomes soggy. You may try a teething ring. Some babies prefer to chew on a clean cloth or blanket.

Q. Should I use aspirin, paracetamol or other drugs?
A. Check with your doctor first. It isn't wise to use drugs without medical supervision. Many pediatricians recommend a teething lotion that is free of strong drugs and which is readily available without prescription.

If my doctor suggests a teething lotion, when should I use it?

A. When he suggests that you do, usually when baby is exceedingly upset and cranky. Apply the lotion with a clean cloth wrapped around your finger, gently massaging baby's gums.

Q. Will teething always bother my baby?

A. Some babies never let on that they're teething and some fret and fuss with every tooth that cuts through. Discomfort, however, more often occurs when baby cuts the first incisors, the first molars and the canine or eye teeth.

HOW BABY DEVELOPS

By Kenneth S. Shepard, M. D.
Director, Well Baby Clinics
Northwestern University School of Medicine

Development is a personal thing with baby. He may be faster or slower than other babies. He may be ahead in some things and behind in others.

Generally, though, development studies do show us what we might look for as we watch baby growing up. Here are some of the things we might see during baby's first six months.

First Month—Baby does not see well enough to follow any close objects. He does better following a light or a wiggling finger that is three or more feet away. He will stare indefinitely at his surroundings. He will make throaty noises and if you give him a toy, he will drop it, water and juices. If his appetite is off, offer foods baby likes. Give him a dried crust of bread to chew on, changing it when it becomes soggy. You may try a teething ring. Some babies pre-as you move it from side to side.

Third Month—Baby, at this age, should make motions with his hands to grasp an object but generally he does not take the object to his mouth.

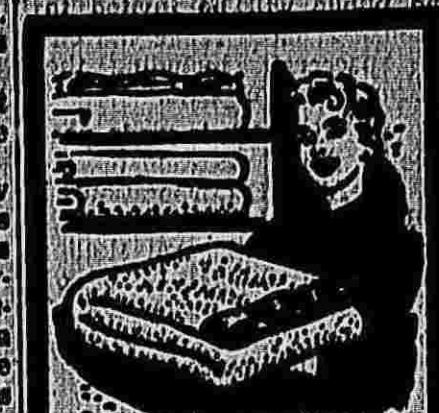

Fourth Month—Baby can now lift his head. When sitting, his head should now be steady. His eyes should follow a slowly moving object. His arms will become active at the sight of a dangling toy. He will take the toy in hand and put it to his mouth. He will show excitement and laugh loudly. He will play with his hands, smile spontaneously and if he's wearing a dress, try to pull it over his face.

Fifth Month—Baby should enjoy sitting in his chair at this age.

Sixth Month—Propped up or when given a toy, baby is now able to enjoy himself, alone. He likes to be wheeled along the street in his buggy. Though he enjoys sitting up for long periods, he is also content to remain lying down. At this age, he begins to respond to more than one person at a time. He is able to differentiate between people too and shows preference for the person who usually feeds him. He is lively with those whom he knows and is beginning to be shy with strangers, especially in new places. He also begins to show a liking for rhythm.

President Cunningham urged Antioch citizens to take advantage of this opportunity to honor the police officers of our community and to provide a wider base of understanding of their daily work.

Attorney Clark Warns Of Spring Gyp Schemes

Illinois Attorney General William G. Clark warned the public today that "itinerant spring-time gyp artists are about to rear their ugly heads." Clark made this statement in an address at a luncheon of the Catholic Lawyers Guild of Chicago in the President's Room of the Chicago Bar Association.

Clark said, "As the ice melts and the pleasant weather of spring approaches, the public is once again confronted with various gyp schemes, scare experts, and itinerant peddlers. The scare experts are those who approach the housewife and state that they are experts in chimneys or catch basins. They offer a free inspection, and, after making it, state that unless certain work is performed irreparable damage will be done. The price is stated to be nominal, but, upon presentation of a bill, the housewife usually finds that such work is very expensive. Grass seed chisellers are also prevalent at this time, and usually sell an inferior product at an inflated price.

Examples of other types of gyp artists are humus peddlers, itinerant landscape experts and tree surgeons, who just happen to be in the neighborhood. All such gyp artists operate by using the fast sell and once-in-a-lifetime method, stating that this is a one-time deal and must be completed right away.

Clark gives this advice as a guide to housewives in dealing with these itinerant "experts" or peddlers: "Anything that is a good deal today will be a good deal tomorrow, and the company should be checked to determine whether they are merchants of good standing in the community before agreeing to have one's lawn seeded, trees sprayed or catch basins cleaned."

Clark went on to point out that this reminder was brought to his attention by a complaint received in the Attorney General's Bureau of Consumer Fraud. In that case a woman had ordered six or seven bushels of fertilizer, but upon presentation of the bill she found that sixty-seven bushels had already been spread on her lawn, and when she objected to paying the bill the gyp artist threatened her with a lien against her home.

The Attorney General stated that he felt his Bureau is a success and that it has, thus far, fulfilled the expectations he had for it when he drafted the law. Clark stated, "I have filed three suits in Chicago involving various fraudulent and misleading business practices that have resulted in two temporary injunctions and an agreement to cease doing business in the City of Chicago temporarily."

Clark displayed a copy of the Bureau's brochure entitled "Your protection from Fraudulent Selling" and asked the audience to contact his office at 160 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, for any copies they may require for their clients.

Clark noted that the brochure emphasized the importance of the consumer investigating before buying, with the warning not to make financial commitments which cannot be met.

of which were under the estimate."

The Board adjourned at 10:55.

605.53 (concrete), $241,074.52 (asbestos).

The bids were then gathered up by the Board and President M. Cunningham stated that they would be processed, tabulated and evaluated by village engineer Dave Miller. A period of about 8 to 10 days is expected before a choice from the bidders on all projects is made.

After a brief recess, the board resumed its regular business meeting with most of the representatives leaving.

The Treasurer's report revealed that there was a total of $17,423 in the General Fund. President Cunningham added that after taxes and water and sewer funds were added to the General Fund, the total would be upped to $26,000.

The Board approved a transfer of $5000 from the General Fund to the Road and Bridge Fund.

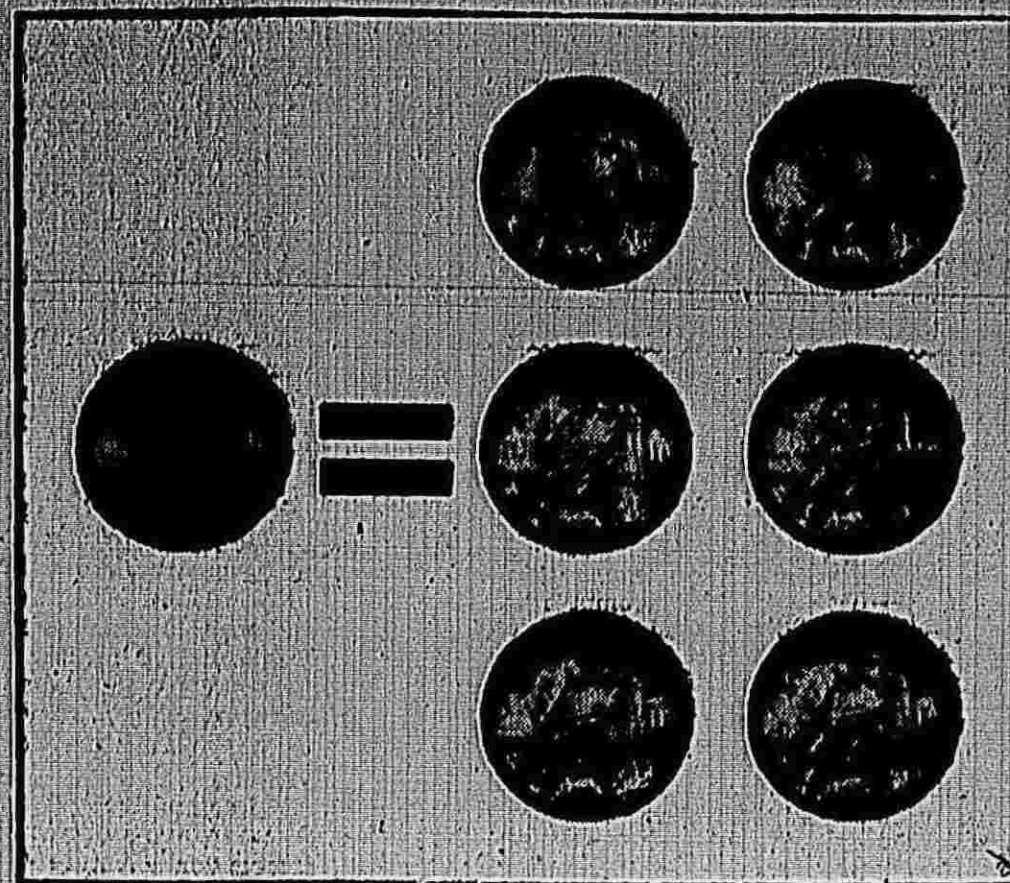

Next the Board approved the purchase of a $3800 bucket tractor to be used for excavating and various other uses in and about the village.

The Police Report indicated that 127 tickets had been issued last month with 54 of them paid. The report also included a listing of 5 accidents and 5 petty larcenies. A total of $185 in fines have been collected.

A building permit was issued by the Board to Gibbs & Jensen, to build upon a lot adjacent to their present property.

Relating to the ever-increasing number of accidents in the village, the Board decided to place a stop sign for traffic proceeding east at the Soo Line tracks and Ida Avenue.

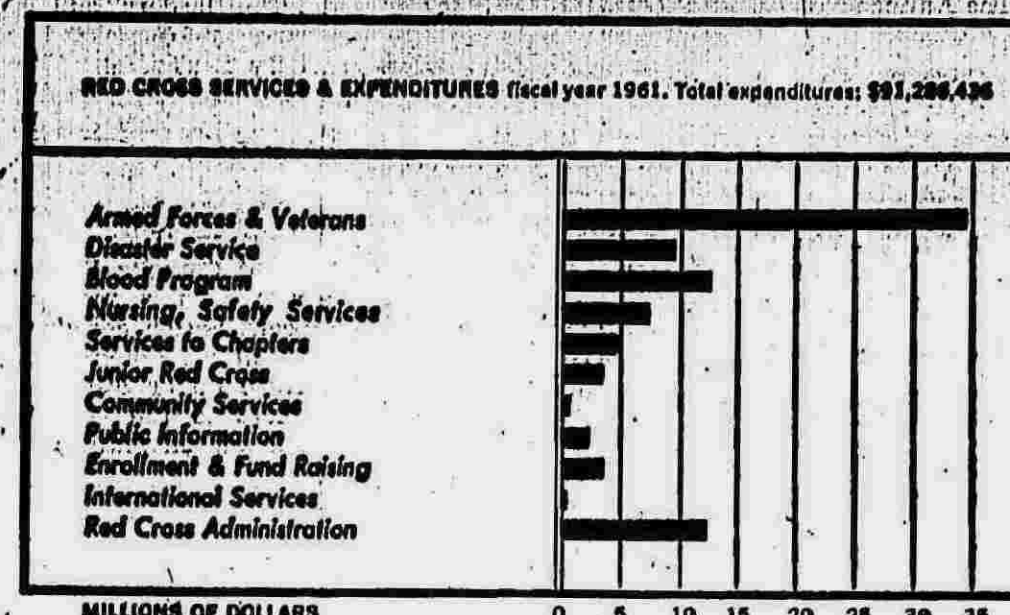

Before the conclusion of the meeting, engineer Dave Miller stated that the bids accumulated were "awfully good bids... all Reports were given on the last Council meeting and on Public Relations; also each leader gave a report on the service project her troop had done. Mrs. Queen told about her trip to Williams Bay for the Arts and Crafts Caravan. Some of the different things they did and what she had learned and enjoyed.

A committee of four was formed to co-ordinate all troop efforts for a Nature display we will have at the Golden Promise Pageant to be held April 7. The cookie and nut sale will begin March 16-26. The ladies enjoyed a song session including songs we will use at the Golden Promise Pageant led by Miss Margien Lund. Mrs. Froelich spoke a few words on Girl Scouting.

A film entitled "Something for the Girls," will be shown at our next meeting to be held March 26, at the Lake Villa Village Hall at 11:30 A.M. Anyone attending should bring a nosebag lunch. All leaders, co-leaders and committee women are urged to attend.

HERE'S HOW BANKRUPTCY WORKS

Bernard Fisher was becoming frantic. His grocery business was losing money, he was unable to pay his bills as they came due, and he couldn't get new credit. He finally faced the fact that he should abandon the grocery business and return to his job of milkman, but he had heard that if he did so his creditors would obtain judgments against him and tie up his wages.

In desperation Bernard went to talk to a lawyer about bankruptcy.

Purpose of Proceeding
Bernard's lawyer explained that bankruptcy laws are designed to assist unpaid creditors as well as overburdened debtors. The debtor is given an opportunity to obtain a fresh financial start by having his debts erased, while at the same time creditors are allowed to share on an equal, prorata basis in whatever assets the debtor has at the time the petition in bankruptcy is filed.

All unsecured general creditors will be treated equally so they need not race one another through the courts in order to

to the moral and spiritual principles behind it.

This meeting was well attended by parish chairmen from North Chicago, Waukegan, Fox Lake, Round Lake, Grayslake and Antioch.

Troop 193 of Antioch Grade School opened their weekly meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, after which a short invitational took place for Kathy Wysoglad, Robin Kiffer, Jo Ann Millhouse, and Diane Hartmann.

They said their promise and were pinned by their leader, Mrs. Vi Beattie and assisted by their co-leader, Mrs. Pat Polgrove. After the pinning Kathy Wysoglad was hostess to a birthday party. They sang "Happy Birthday," and had hot chocolate and dessert, followed by games. It is the practice of this troop that each girl will be hostess for the meeting that falls closest to her birthday.

Brownie Troop 212 of Venetian Village held a Mother-Daughter banquet March 1, at 5:30-7 at the Venetian Village Civic Center. This was a planned pot luck. They had as their guests, Mrs. Evelyn Sedivec, Neighborhood chairman and her Girl Scout daughter, Susan. Mrs. Sedivec spoke a few words on the responsibilities of Adults in Girl Scouting.

There were 48 present and their leader is Mrs. Mary Rozga and her co-leaders are Mrs. Marcella McCarthy and Mrs. Ruth Koeng. Mrs. Fuzkin and Mrs. Rucholdt of Girl Scout Troop 211 served and Troop 212 will return this favor when 211 has their banquet.

If, however, it is discovered that he knowingly concealed any assets or engaged in some similar dishonesty the court may refuse to discharge him by denying the petition.

This column is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law. (The names used in this series are fictitious.)

Senator Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania says: Millions of Americans who are now leading productive lives would be dead or crippled if it were not for drugs, many of which were unavailable as few as 10 or 15 years ago. The emptying of TB sanatoriums, the decline in the population of our mental hospitals, the alleviation of crippling diseases such as arthritis; the successful treatment of pneumonia, scarlet fever, syphilis, meningitis, and other virulent diseases—all this represents a scientific achievement just as remarkable as, and perhaps even more important than, man's breakthrough into space. Amazingly enough, medical science has advanced more rapidly in the last two decades than in the preceding two centuries. We have become so accustomed to the so-called miracle drugs that we forget just how miraculous today's treatments would once have seemed."

Be first in line for what might be salvaged.

Two Types of Bankruptcy

All bankruptcy proceedings are instituted in federal courts. They are of two general types, voluntary and involuntary. When the debtor himself institutes the proceeding it is called a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. Anyone who is unable to meet his obligations as they come due may bring a voluntary petition.

In contrast an involuntary petition is brought by creditors who force the debtor into the proceeding. An involuntary petition may not be filed until the debtor has committed what is known as an "act of bankruptcy," such as making a payment to a creditor on a previously incurred account at a time when both know the debtor is insolvent.

Trustee and Referee Appointed

If Bernard decides to bring a voluntary petition, he must prepare a list of all his assets, debts and creditors. He files this in an appropriate court and the clerk of the court sends a notice of the filing of the petition to all creditors listed and of the day set for the first meeting of creditors.

The court will appoint a

Sequoits Hold Down Scoring

A spirited fourth period rally by the Antioch Sequoits gave the North Chicago Hawks a bad scare here Saturday night but they held on and finally took the victory 61-56.

Playing in their last regularly scheduled game of the season for both squads, the Hawks ran into more than they bargained for when the Sequoits closed the gap to three points late in the fourth quarter.

Playing aggressively throughout the game the Sequoits could not find the basket in the first half, hitting on only 8 out of 30 attempts. Leaving at half time trailing by a 10 point margin, Leon's charges warmed up in the third period and reduced it to 9 points with a 15-16 quarter score.

A basket by Bud Dittman plus 4 free throws followed by a pair of charity tosses by Pleviak and one by Krieger had chopped the Hawks lead to 3 points at 57-54 with less than two minutes left.

A driving layup by Bill Liskey and another field goal by Lester Long put the Hawks out of reach.

Turning in a fine defensive performance the Sequoits held Long to a meager five baskets, 16 points below his season's average. The Hawks outscored the Antioch quintet 29-21 from the field but the Sequoits balanced it off with 14 charity tosses to 3 for North Chicago.

John Hallways, Junior center, turned in another fine performance, grabbing off crucial rebounds from the rangy Chicagoans. Pleviak, Dittman and Krieger teamed together provided the bulk of the scoring punch for the Sequoits, getting 16, 13 and 10 points respectively. Bob Kubicki, usually the high scorer for Antioch was held to 8 points.

Wally Alexonis led the way for the winners, dumping in 20 points and hauling in 18 rebounds.

Hoffman Tops Records in Men's Tournaments

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell.
Activity in the Men's Singles tournament roared into high gear again this past weekend, with both local and out-of-town bowlers vying for honors in the event.

"Dutch" Hoffman of the Old Fitzgerald team of Chicago bettered the previous high score, Don Slama's 254, by three pins, to go into first place. Dutch rolled games of 257-257 and 237. With a six-pin handicap, this gave him a 757 series.

Dave Gralewicz, last year's winner with a 743, tried his luck Sunday but could not repeat. Winner of the tournament two years ago, Gordon Wallenberg, got his name on the board Saturday with a 672 series.

Last year's tournament ended with 19 entrants having turned in over-700 scores. With a week to go in this year's competition, only ten 700 or better scores are on the board.

Leaders in the tournament to date are:

Dutch Hoffman	757
Don Slama	754
Al Kaplan	735
Frank Huspen	731
Rick Ferrine	727
Dick Armstrong	726
John Nicola	723
Bud Schabaly	721
Bob Kraft	714
Carl Carlson	704
Gordon Wallenberg	672
Joe Horvath	663
Bob Banasack	659
Art Nowakowski	655

St. Peter's Ends Season With Undefeated Record

Undefeated in 13 consecutive games, the St. Peter's basketball team traveled to Libertyville for a game which climaxed the most successful season in the school's history.

As a result of some very accurate shooting, the Libertyville team held a 25 to 14 lead by the end of the first half. Going into the second half of the game, St. Peter's squad used a full-court press while having complete control of the backboards. This tight-fighting action held the Libertyville cagers to four points in the second half and brought home an exciting and final victory to St. Peter's.

The team's coach, Bill Neuhauer reported the year's record:

The Antioch Sequoits lost any chance for Regional tournament honors last night as they lost to Barrington High School 58-38 in an error riddled contest.

Hampered by tournament jitters, the Sequoits appeared listless and unaggressive as they failed to capitalize on 22 turnovers by the Barrington team. Playing what Coach Leon termed "our poorest game of the season," the Sequoits could manage only an unimpressive 28% shooting percentage from the field.

Two well-known bowlers, Herb Lohman and Harry Lippl, are scheduled to bowl on the last day (Sunday) at 7 p.m. The tournament ends at 1 a.m. Monday.

The newly formed Chain O' Lakes Boat Club Auxiliary held its first meeting March 3, with election of officers. They are as follows: President, Cecilia Portalski; vice president, Carol Hill; secretary, Lois Zender; treasurer, Jana Trebles; board of directors: Grace Sullivan, Ethel Rad and Phyllis Stromstedt and publicity, Louise Gutowski.

All women who attended the initial meeting and paid dues became charter members, and any women who pay dues before the opening of the April 7 meeting are entitled to become charter members, also. After this time a small initiation fee will be charged. Women must be sponsored by a member of the Chain O' Lakes Boat Club.

The next two meetings for the C.O.L.B.C. Auxiliary will be March 18 at 3 p.m. and April 7 at 9 p.m. at the Wing 'N' Fin, at Volo.

Plans for the third annual Las Vegas Nights for April 28 at the Wing 'N' Fin are well under way. Co-chairmen for this event are Ingrid Brown and Carol Hill. Everyone is invited. A good time is promised, with food, games, dancing and prizes.

John Lear led in the scoring column with 11 points, followed by Satterfield and Gates with 10 respectively. Gerzel was high for the losers with 15 points. Satterfield led in the rebouncing department with 12. The contest was marked by good defensive performances by Lear and Gates.

New Area Ski Slopes Open

Buffalo Park, which is located near Algonquin, is the latest ski area to open in northern Illinois. Two challenging intermediate/expert runs have been cut from wooded slopes of the 150- to 175-foot bluffs above the Fox River, and a third slope is nearing completion. A beginner's slope has been built on top of the bluff, offering a gentle 600-foot run from a 75-foot elevation. All runs are serviced by rope tows.

Believed to be the first completely-equipped new area to open in Northern Illinois, Buffalo Park boasts snow-making machinery, night lighting of all slopes, ski shop, snack bar, and rental equipment for all sizes of skiers—from the short-short four-year-olds to seven-foot basketball centers.

Unusual feature of Buffalo Park is the ski lodge and 200-car parking lot located at the top of the bigger hills. Traditionally, ski lodges and parking facilities are placed at the foot of the slopes—but the convenience of State Route 31 to the parking area, and a natural mesa at the top of the bluffs make the reversed procedure at Buffalo Park practical. "Building Buffalo Park 'upside down' not only gives direct access from a main all-weather highway, but also has allowed preservation of the trees and landscaping along the Fox River," says Bradford Shinkle, president of the operating company, United Skiers, Inc. "Al Spolar, from whom we leased the land, has operated a picnic grove along the river for a number of years. The ski slopes should actually enhance the beauty of the area during the summer."

Buffalo Park's Ski School is directed by Adolph A. Schumann, Jr., with Robert E. Neumann as head ski instructor. Both Schumann and Neumann are Central United States Ski Association Certified Instructors. They are assisted by a staff of expert skier-instructors, including Tony Tomasek, Ed Straka, Bob Donahue and Jim Karban.

Chicago's Windy City Ski Club sponsors the Buffalo Park Ski Patrol, trained according to National Ski Patrol standards, and headed by Egon Gerson. Skiers—particularly the 100-000-plus enthusiasts in the Chicago area—are willing and anxious to ski at every opportunity. Knowing these trails well, the builder-operators of Buffalo Park (also skiers) plan to keep the slopes open every day and evening of the week from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturdays; Sundays and holidays; and from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays.

"The area was built by skiers, for skiers," says Arthur M. Schuring, Buffalo Park's operating manager. "The slopes offer anyone from the Very-First-Timer to the shortwing expert ample opportunities for fun and excitement. . . . Of course, we're sure skiing is the greatest sport of all!"

Clear track for ski expert! Steep "Wingover" run, at new Buffalo Park Ski area near Algonquin, is checked for safety and snow condition by ski school Director Adolph A. Schumann Jr. (below), and Bob Donahue (left), ski instructor, before ski school classes begin. Buffalo Park makes its own snow; has floodlighted slopes for night skiing.

Woman Bowler

Has 279 Game

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell

Mrs. Myrtle Sampayo achieved one of the dreams of every bowler Tuesday night—a 279 game.

Myrtle rolled her almost-perfect game as a member of Joe and Helen's team in the Tuesday night Ten Pin Topplers League at the Antioch Bowl. She started the game with three strikes, had a spare in the fourth frame, and struck out. Myrtle carries a 164 average in this league. She turned in a 631 series with her 279 game. Her best previous series in league bowling was a 600 in the Friday night Pinspotters' league last year.

In addition to the honor and pleasure of a nearly-perfect game, any woman bowling a 279 game in league play receives two hundred dollars from the Bowling Proprietors Association.

Lakeland red clover seed is now available to northern Illinois farmers. Tests at the University of Illinois have shown that this clover outyields medium red clover by half a ton of hay per acre.

Lindenhurst News

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau
St. 4444

The Lindenhurst Women's Club will not meet Thursday, March 8, as usual. Instead, they will gather at the Lake Villa School, any time after 3:30 p.m. to sort rummage for the Country Hospital Rummage and Bake Sale. Members are asked to bring their cake donations on Saturday. The meeting will be held the following week on March 15.

CMA
Last Thursday morning I drove to Palatine to see the new CMA store that opened that day. It was a cold, snowy day, but that didn't keep the hundreds of people away. I was anxious to see what my one-time favorite, George Raft, looked like in person. On Friday and Saturday, Jayne Mansfield and Mickey Hargitay were there. I got George's autograph, but I didn't know which way to hold it to read it. I know he never received an E in writing. As Billy says, "George doesn't have to write good, he's rich."

Awards
Mrs. B. Truelsen was awarded the mink stole at the Prince of Peace card party last Wednesday. Nancy Wolff of Lindenhurst received the electric fry pan and Cynthia Brenna the permanent wave.

sub-zero weather to help support the society.
Mrs. Kay Kaating, representative of the VFW to the Country Hospital Rummage and Bake Sale, reminds the members to bring their rummage to the Lake Villa School Thursday after 3:30 p.m. or Friday or Saturday if unable to do so before. Also home baked goods will be sold Friday from the group, since others are baking for Saturday. Everyone is asked to donate some home made goods, especially bread and coffee cake are requested.

New Baby
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ess of Hazelwood Drive are receiving congratulations on the birth of their second son and fifth child, Little, and I do mean little, Dana Joseph was born Feb. 27 at St. Therese Hospital. He weighed only 3 pounds 12 ounces.

The Ess' other children are John, Debbie, Diane and Laura. The grandparents are Mrs. Henry Forcelle and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Ess, all of Minneapolis, Minn.

Smorgasbord
Everyone loves good cooking. And the Millburn Temple on Rte. 45 and Wadsworth Road will be serving just that on Saturday, March 10, from 5 to 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Virginia Evans is chairman.

Birthday Celebration
It's nice to have good friends, and nicer when they surprise you with a party. Lorraine Lewis was surprised with a birthday party Feb. 28 at the home of Martha Orbanek. Co-hostesses with her were Arlene Pawlowski and Shirley Coles. Several of the women who were invited were unable to attend due to illness, but Donna Olson from Pelee Lake, Helen Skelton, Lois Peterson, Terri Erickson and Pauline Pulls helped make Lorraine's birthday a memorable one. Everyone brought or sent gifts. They played several games and the winners received prizes. The party ended with everyone singing "Happy Birthday" and dining on home made butterscotch torte, cookies and coffee.

New Addition
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Povlatis of Fairfield Road on the birth of their second son and third child, Gregory Glen was born Feb. 28, at 6:23 a.m., at Victory Memorial Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 11 ounces when Dr. David Kwoeder of Waukegan delivered him.

The sister and brother are Donna Marie and Gilbert, Jr. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. Anne Puzan of Chicago and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Wensle of Waukegan.

Holy Name Society
The members of the Holy

Name Society will receive Holy Communion next Sunday at the 8 o'clock mass. All men of the parish are invited to receive with them.

Police Superintendent O. W. Wilson is sending out Officer Duffy and his dog Major from the Chicago Police Canine Corps to lecture on the work and duties of the Canine Corps at the Wednesday, March 14, meeting. It will be a very interesting and informative demonstration of the Police dogs.

On March 17, the Holy Name men will sponsor a St. Patrick's Day dance at the Civic Center on Old Elm Road, in Lindenhurst. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Julia Pearson has returned home after a month's stay at Resurrection Hospital in Chicago.

New Hours
Larry Klamfoth village clerk, is keeping new hours on Mondays and Thursdays. He will be on duty from 7 to 9 p.m. Vehicle stickers will go on sale April 1.

Men's Club
The 16 members of the Lindenhurst Men's Club who signed their names in good faith for the mortgage of the Civic Center are Paul Wright, Louis Harce, Fred Zandler, Douglas Ploss, Milton Lazansky, Donald Bogda, Ted Flanagan, Donald DiSilvestro, Barry Kleban, Thor Neumann, Lyle Mercer, James Hartwig, John Slove, Andrew Kevin, Robert Splegl and William Kaub.

The title is in the name of the Men's Club. The Antioch Savings and Loan Association holds the mortgage. Payments of $193 a month have to be met, with $30 of that being held for taxes.

Anyone wishing information about renting the Center is asked to call Mrs. James Hartwig, 2415 Sand Lake Road, Elliot 6-7685.

About twenty people attended the first open house at the civic center Saturday evening. They enjoyed playing ping-pong, cards, dancing to the juke box and watching TV. Every Saturday that the center isn't rented, residents are invited to make use of the place. This weekend you are invited to join your friends and neighbors. The kitchen and bar will be open, for those who wish refreshments.

Demonstrations
Terry Kasperski of 2309 East Honeysuckle Court, was recently promoted from a "Little Sister" to a full fledged beauty adviser for the Studio Girl Cosmetics in this area.

Peggy Finley of Honeysuckle Court had the first party and Donna Schwanke of Glendale Court had the second. At Peggy's beauty counseling demonstration, Lynn Seichtener of Gurnee received the full beauty treatment, starting with cleansing cream and ending up with eye shadow and lip stick. Cosmetics properly applied do make a difference. At Donna's party, Carol Rasch of Venetian Village was the model. Everyone who attended was greatly interested in being shown the correct way to use and apply their cosmetics.

Daisies, Seniors
On March 1, the Lindenhurst Daisies Seniors met at the home of Lorrie Lewis. Shirley Reichenbach has joined the girls.

Lorrie gave a demonstration on pad stitching. Plans for their open house at the Lindenhurst Laundromat on Saturday were made.

On Friday, the girls got together and made their posters inviting people to come in and help them celebrate 4-H Week. Saturday morning, Marianne Smith, Lorrie Lewis, Patricia Wallock and Carolyn Westberg baked yeast rolls, that they served with refreshing coffee in the laundromat, to everyone who came in that afternoon. As one of the visitors, I enjoyed eating a twist, baked by Marianne.

The Daisies' pledge is: To make the best better, I pledge my head to clear thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service, and my health to better living, for my club, my community and my country.

Four-H Week is being celebrated March 3 to 10. Mrs. Andrew (Edith) Westberg is their leader. She has been sick and the girls wish her a speedy recovery.

The group will meet at Marianne's home on March 15, at 7 p.m.

Birthdays
Many happy returns to Mrs. Josephine Heindl of 611 S. Deerpath Drive, who celebrated her birthday on February 28. Several ladies in this vicinity share that day.

The Jim Hartwig family on Sand Lake Road celebrated two birthdays Sunday. Danny was two years old that day, and Michael will be 9 years old on the 10th.

Phil Jackson celebrated his (twelfth birthday also, on March 4. Helping him celebrate the occasion were his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pearson of North Chicago and Mrs. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Warren Miller who has been visiting here for the past two weeks from Belmont, Mass. Tuesday, Feb. 27, also was Jean's birthday. She and her mother spent the day visiting friends in Kenosha. The Jacksons live at 314 South Thornwood Drive.

March 2 was a big day in the Denver Shore home on Valley Drive. That was the day Mary celebrated her birthday, and they, their anniversary. They have two sons, Jimmy at home and John, who is married and lives in Lake Villa with his wife, Valerie, and their baby.

Accident
Mrs. Millie Caldwell, 2118 East Old Elm Road is hobbling around after slamming the car door on her foot last Friday. Telling Millie to stay off her foot for two weeks is like telling the kids not to eat candy. It just can't be done. A speedy recovery is hoped for, Millie.

NRA CLUB
Boys 11 to 18 belonging to the NRA club, will meet Wednesday evening, March 14, at 7:15 p.m. at the Lindenhurst Civic Center. Boys who are interested in learning the correct way to use a rifle are invited to attend.

Grandmothers Club
Would you like to meet with women of your own age, a little older or younger, perhaps? If you would, call Mrs. Jenny Volpentesta at Elliot 6-7685. The group will meet at the home of Mrs. Minnie Clanco, 2317 Sand Lake Road, next Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Some of the ladies are learning to knit. Perhaps they could teach you something, or you teach them something new. Or, if you just like to talk, this is for you. They are anxious to get more members, so give Mrs. Volpentesta a call right away.

Vacationers Return
Gene and Marilyn Blaggi returned home Sunday afternoon after spending three weeks in Florida. They and their three boys, Ronnie 16, Bobby 10 and Michael, 8 months, visited Marilyn's mother, Mrs. Orva Helton, in Naples, Florida, on the Gulf Coast. They also visited with her sister, Mrs. William Mattice, who formerly lived in Lindenhurst, who who now lives in Wisconsin. She has been in Florida visiting since January.

They went fishing, swimming, and relaxing in the sun. Temperatures in the 80's and 90's all the time. Gene went oystering and brought back buckets of oysters. They all enjoyed fresh oyster stew. The boys were fascinated watching other people shark fishing. A trip through the Cypress Gardens with its semitropical trees and plants and beautiful flowers will long be remembered. They spent a day with Don and Mary DiSilvestro of Deerpath Road who were also vacationing at Miami Beach at the time.

Mrs. Blaggi was ready to turn around and head back for Florida when she saw all the snow. It was here when she left, but she thought that by the time they got back home it would be gone.

Teenage Club
The sixteen members of the Lindenhurst-Venetian Village Teenage Club who attended Sunday's meeting, made plans to run a Doughnut Sale in Lindenhurst Place to raise funds for the club and also to support the Men's Club Civic Center Fund. The sale is being considered for March 16 and 17. Be looking for the Doughnut ride on those days. Mrs. Ted Brendel acted as chaperone. They are planning a paper drive and a car wash in the near future. Keep saving your newspapers for the youngsters.

What your Red Cross Does As A Civic Organization

The Red Cross is many things to many people, to some it represents the blood, furnished without charge, that saved a loved one. To another it is the shelter and food received at a Red Cross shelter during a hurricane. Many servicemen think of the Red Cross as the Gray Lady who took time to write a letter to his family, or the field director who arranged and financed an emergency leave. Others know the Red Cross through its training program in First Aid, Water Safety, Home Nursing and through the Junior and High School Red Cross groups in our schools.

Almost everyone, in some way, has been helped by the Red Cross, but there is the doubter, the skeptic, who doubts the good intentions and policies of the Red Cross.

It is the uninformed who knock the Red Cross, it is the intention of this and other articles to make informed, knowledgeable members of those in this community.

Who is the Red Cross? It is you and your neighbors who support and staff your Red Cross.

Mr. John L. Horan, 407 Orchard St., Antioch, is a member of the Lake County's Red Cross Home Service Committee.

We are fortunate here in Lake County not to experience many of the natural disasters that plague other areas of the country, but we are not immune to personal disasters such as fires, automobile accidents, serious illness, or any of the many things that can upset and threaten the homes and families of our neighbors. It is the Red Cross' obligated duty to help those in need.

Although supported only by you and your neighbors' contributions, the American Red Cross is charged with certain responsibilities by its charter issued by the Federal Government.

Governmental agencies look to the Red Cross to perform services to the members of the Armed Forces and their families, veterans and their families, operate disaster services, blood services, nursing services, safety services, international services and volunteer services. No charge is ever made for any Research at the University of Illinois shows that the demands on the high-producing cow's system right after freshening are great. To get the best milk production, farmers should make sure cows receive enough feed nutrients to meet these heavy demands.

USDA statisticians estimate that farmers and ranchers had 99.5 million cattle and calves on hand January 1. This is 2 percent more than a year ago. The increase in supplies will be offset by greater demand, so prices received by farmers will average about the same as in 1961.

Criticism wouldn't be so hard to take if it weren't so often right.—The Advocate, Greenville, Ill.

A date with a doctor for a physical checkup, should be a part of the beauty regimen of every woman over 35 years of age, says a University of Illinois health education specialist. Remember, beauty is a by-product of good health.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 10 THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1962

One of the most important preparations a pedestrian should make before crossing a street at a corner is to "Watch For Turning Cars." This message, the theme of the March school safety poster distributed by the Chicago Motor Club to more than 45,000 grade school classrooms, applies to both children and adults. When crossing at a corner a pedestrian should stop, look behind his shoulder for turning cars, and look both left and right for passing traffic. Help reduce pedestrian accidents by always watching for turning cars.

Lake County Youth Will Work in Conservation

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club at its February meeting Wednesday, Feb. 28, has set in motion an Outdoor Laboratory Program to initiate youth groups into conservation work. Administrators of schools in the Chain of Lakes region will be visited shortly and apprised of the plan.

School grounds will be the workshops in which our youths will be taught conservation of soil, wildlife and flora by actually doing the things that are necessary to bring this about. They will be taught which species of tree and shrub to plant, the best location for it and why. The Club will supply the necessary nursery stock and the instructors to teach and supervise the planning and planting which will be done by the youths, who will also care for the project.

It is felt that this plan will pay a four-fold dividend because conservation will be learned in a positive manner by doing it; school grounds will be improved and the students will take pride in their school and in what they have accomplished. This should bring about a marked reduction in vandalism against school property, if not a complete cessation of the same. A child who knows conservation will find destruction incompatible with his thinking.

It is from here, it is felt, our civic leaders and conservationists will come in the future.

Mr. Edward C. Cooney, who is Supervisor of Conservation Education for the State of Illinois, addressed the Club and presented his ideas and suggestions for accomplishing this program. His offer to help was eagerly accepted by the membership.

Mr. Frost Loomis, Forestry Biologist for the Department of Conservation discussed the availability of nursery stock and methods of procuring it. He offered to, and will supervise the planting program.

Game Warden Lloyd Leable was also present and concurred in the plan.

Why Jewel doesn't rely on stamps to earn your business

This week another food chain announced it, too, would use trading stamps. Why doesn't Jewel jump on the "stamp gimmick" bandwagon?

Simply and honestly, to protect your freedom of choice and your pocket-book.

The "stamp grocer" must pay his stamp company 2% on every sale he makes. We know from our own long experience that such a substantial increase in the cost of doing business must eventually be passed on to customers in one form or another. It just has to show up—a penny here, a penny there, or poorer service or lower quality.

During the last five years, with trading stamps available in the Chicago-land area, Jewel people have served an ever increasing number of satisfied customers. Why? Because we have concentrated on our responsibility to protect the quality of food you buy, the services you need and the low prices you pay for food.

We will continue to make every effort to guard your food budget and the quality of the foods you serve your family. We invite you to shop at Jewel for better service, fine quality and low prices.

Depend On Jewel For Quality Foods!  Depend On Jewel For Quality Foods!  Depend On Jewel For Quality Foods!

Your Family Enjoys More Lean Pork When You Buy Jewel's Smaller Loins!

It's easy to see why smaller, light-weight Jewel Pork Roasts make a better meal for your family when you realize that these 10 to 12 pound pork loins (the kind Jewel pays a premium for) have a smaller proportion of fat and bone than larger more ordinary roasts you find elsewhere!

That's why your family enjoys more sweet, tender meat on a four pound portion of a 10 to 12 pound loin (the kind you find at Jewel) than they would on a four pound "end piece" of a larger 12 to 16 pound pork loin (the kind you find elsewhere)!

Your family deserves the best... so make sure they get it by depending on Jewel for the finest quality foods available!
